You must be a Hoosier if...

- You've never met any celebrities
- Your idea of a traffic jam is ten cars waiting to pass a tractor on the highway
- You measure distance in minutes
- Down south to you means Kentucky
- You know several people who have hit a deer
- You have no problem spelling or pronouncing "Terre Haute"
- Your school classes were cancelled because of cold
- Your school classes were cancelled because of heat
- You know where all the Yoder's live
- You've ridden the school bus for an hour each way
- You've ever had to switch from "heat" to "A/C" in the same day
- You know what's knee-high by the Fourth of July
- You shop at Marsh
- Stores don't have bags, they have sacks
- You call a green pepper a "mango"
- You see people wear bib overalls at funerals
- You see a car running in the parking lot at the store with no one in it no matter what time of the year
- All the festivals across the state are named after a fruit, vegetable or grain
- You go to the fair every night of its week long duration
- De-tassling was your first job. Bailing hay your second, or you could stack hay, swim in the pond to clean off, and then have the strength to play a couple of games of hoops all in the same day
- Your idea of a really great tenderloin is when the meat is twice as big as the bun and accompanied only by ketchup and a dill pickle slice
- You've heard of Euchre, you know how to play Euchre, and you are the master of Euchre
- You say catty-wumpus and kitty-corner
- You know what FFA stands for
- You think of the major four food groups as beef, pork, beer and Jell-O salad with marshmallows
- You consider being called a "Pork Queen" an honor
- You carry jumper cables in your car
- You drink "pop"
- You know what "cow tipping" is
- If you can see at least 2 basketball hoops from your yard
- High school basketball game draws a bigger crowd on the weekend nights than movie theaters
- You actually know what the CART vs IRL debate is about, and you have taken a side
- The biggest question of your youth was "IU or Purdue"
